Expectations & Conduct Form

All MTCHS students competing at the SkillsUSA National Leadership & Skills Conference (NLSC) are part of the MTCHS and Idaho Team. They are expected to fully participate in all scheduled events, team activities and contest requirements.

All students attending the NLSC are expected to follow MTCHS policies and the SkillsUSA Code of Conduct, exhibiting exemplary behavior during their entire trip to and from Atlanta, GA, as well as during their stay. Any misbehavior will result in an immediate request to stop, followed by parental notification if the behavior continues. As a final measure, the student may be sent home at the parent's expense.

It is the responsibility of parents to thoroughly check their student's luggage immediately before departure for any inappropriate items, such as drugs, alcohol, weapons, or other illegal or inappropriate materials. MTCHS will not be held liable for a student's possession of any prohibited items.
